

Stella

The Shop at Lazarides London W1

If you're looking to get into art collecting, this is the perfect place to go. You'll find prints from new artists as well as established names, including contemporary street art without the million-pound price tag. theoutsiders.net

Hambleton Hall Rutland

Owned by the same family who run Quo Vadis in London, this great English country hotel has a fabulous lakeside setting and a gourmet restaurant. Blow away the cobwebs with lovely countryside walks. hambletonhall.com

Little black book

SECRET ADDRESSES FROM STYLISH PEOPLE

JOHNNIE SAPONG

39, is a hair stylist. He has created looks for fashion shows in Milan, Paris and New York and has a London salon called The Studio. His regular clients include Brad Pitt and Sienna Miller johnniesapong.com

Geejam Hotel Jamaica

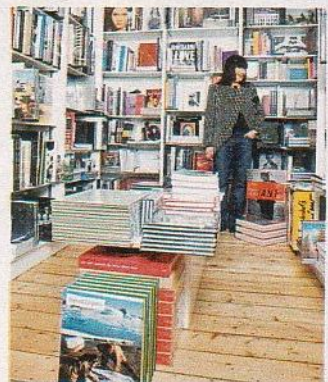

Located close to the legendary Blue Lagoon, Jamaica's hippest hotel has a laid-back vibe and is popular with the music industry. Should inspiration strike you, there's a recording studio at hand. geejamhotel.com

Aspecto Manchester

I'm a big fan of this clothing store, which stocks premium, casual and independent brands such as Adidas and Y3. It's been around for a long time, but I discovered it early on and still love it. aspecto.co.uk

Established & Sons London N1

I've always had a passion for great furniture and this stocks a fabulous range of original and re-made vintage pieces. You can even commission an exclusive piece from the founder Alasdhair Willis - Stella McCartney's husband. establishedandsons.com

Claire de Rouen London WC2

An amazing Aladdin's cave of rare and out-of-print photography, fashion and coffee-table books. It's like entering the Tardis, with books everywhere and cool people signing copies. clairederouenbooks.com

Jay Kos New York

This Park Avenue store does both bespoke and off-the-peg menswear. The designer is an avid cook, which comes through in the clothes, with blazers inspired by the colours of an egg-and-aubergine dish, for example. jaykos.com