

Rock-loving celebs (welcome back, Mary-Kate Olsen and you, too, Martin Short) ushered in 2014 at Chris Blackwell's flippie-chic Golden Eye in inimitable style, rubbing shoulders with the likes of our iconic Grace Jones and dancing up a storm to an eclectic playlist by Major Lazer's The Jillionaire. Page 2 The Style Issue catches you up on the fashionable crowd.

Stormy Intrigue

International singer and actress Grace Jones is definitely intrigued by what film-maker Storm Saulter is sharing about his belle Ayana Riviere.

Wish List

Actress and fashion designer Mary-Kate Olsen and her banker beau Oliver Sarkozy — sibling of former French president Nicolas Sarkozy — release a sky lantern and their New Year's wishes.

Rock With You

Major Lazer member The Jillionaire kept the dance floor rocking with a mash up of indie dance, big room house, dancehall and soca.

The Social Network

We'd like to believe music and hotel mogul Chris Blackwell was considering film-maker Storm Saulter's latest movie pitch as the director's belle Ayana Riviere shared their company.

Page 2

(PHOTOGRAPHER: CECIL HOLGATE)

'Grace'-Land

The iconic Grace Jones partied the night away on the dance floor at Goldeneye's New Year's Eve do.

4, 3, 2, 1...

Investment banker Rickardo Francis and his belle Vanessa Remijno got closer for the big kiss at the stroke of midnight.

In 'Short' Supply

Comedic legend Martin Short (left) said hello to Page 2 alongside pal Don Green (of Roots Canada), who rocked the black-green-and-gold.

THE STYLE ISSUE

Dance, Dance

Dancer and choreographer Fatima Robinson (left) showed No-maddz frontman Sheldon Shepherd a few of her signature moves.